

Lifelong learning & extension Annual report 2013-14

Activities Conducted during 2013-14

R. A. Podar College of Commerce & Economics is affiliated with Department of Lifelong Learning & Extension, University of Mumbai. The motto of Extension Work Unit is 'Reach to Unreached'. In the academic year 2013-14 , eighty one students registered themselves for the Extension Work activity. The Extension Teacher-in-charge and the student managers attended the first and the second term training session organised by DLLE. The college arranged first and second term training session in the college for the students registered with DLLE. The teacher in charge ad students participated in Vishwa Ahinsa Diwas organized by University of Mumbai on the eve of 2nd October 2013 at Gate Way of India. The teacher in charge and students participated in Yuva Diwas celebration organized by DLLE along with DSW, NSS on 12th January 2014 at Sports Complex Kalina Campus, University of Mumbai.

The students participated in Udaan festival poster making competition and Udaan Research Convention.