ORGANIZER : National Institute for Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development (NIESBUD)

The Orientation Seminar of the Entrepreneurship Development Cell was organized by National Institute for Entrepreneurship and Small Business Development (NIESBUD) on 26th September 2016. The members of the training team were Mr. Bharat Panjwani and Mr. Nimish Shah whereas the speakers were Mr. Sharad Sharma and Mr. Sanjay Singh. The objective of the workshop was to inspire students to become 1st or 2nd generation entrepreneurs. The Orientation seminar was divided into two parts as follows:-

1. SPEAKER 1 : Mr. Sharad Sharma

Mr. Sharad Sharma was the first speaker of the event. He emphasized mainly on the need of young entrepreneurs in the society. He gave real life examples clarifying his idea about the same.

2. SPEAKER 2 : Mr. Sanjay Singh

Mr. Sanjay Singh was the second speaker of the event. He gave a brief idea about entrepreneurship and stressed on the point that one should always try to come out of the comfort zone in order to do something different. The seminar witnessed an interaction between the speaker and the participants. The speaker laid stress on the idea to try something new even if you fail in it because the attempt to try something will give a lifetime experience for the future projects. The students were very pleased with the outcome of the seminar as it taught them the importance of entrepreneurship. The seminar concluded with a vote of thanks and felicitation to the speakers
