

HINDI LITERARY CIRCLE- ANNUAL REPORT 2014-15

Activities conducted during the year 2014-15:

The Hindi Literary Circle, also called 'Udaan' was one of the most active forums of the year 2014-15. It saw excellent participation from students across all batches in the several events that it organized and successfully conducted.

The forum began by conducting an essay writing competition organised in the month of August. The topics covered a wide arena, where different brains could use their imaginations to come up with interesting articles. The competition roughly had 30 participants from both, Junior and Degree Colleges.

Hindi Literary Circle, having its prime motive to contribute towards every festival of college also helped in the celebration of Ganesh Utsav. On Teachers Day, A skit named was presented by the students under the banner of HLC, also there was an elocution competition which was conducted under English Literary Circle and HLC. This skit was appreciated by all viewers.

Hindi Literary Circle celebrated 'Hindi Diwas' on 15th of September. 'Hindi Diwas' was a 2 hour programme which was conducted in remembrance of the diverse history of hindi language. It was a programme which saw many performances by the students such as street play, music, poem recitation and much more. It was an enthralling experience which was a tribute to our mother tongue through the several performances that were presented. Special thanks to Principal Mam, Vice -Principal Junior College & Degree College for her help and support.
