

English Literary Circle

Faculty in-charge: Ms. Mamta Sharma & Mrs. Vrushali Bhosale-Kaneri

Student Secretary: Ms. Aastha Giri

For the academic year 2020- 21, the English Literary Circle conducted 4 events, spread evenly across the terms.

The English Literary Circle's first event of the year, Cut Copy Paste was held on 21st August 2020. This event required participants to make something funny and creative out of nothing but a random newspaper. Over 20 students rose to the challenge and created submissions that ranged from topical to relatable to funny. The winners of the event are as follows:

1st Prize: Rutika Sawant

2nd Prize: Sahil Khamgaonkar

3rd Prize: Dharni Nakka

What's the Story was the English Literary Circle's second event. The submissions were accepted from the 28th of September, and are open throughout the year. This event required the participants to write a review on their favourite book or movie. Over 25 students participated in this event giving us exciting and genuine reviews about their favourite books and movies, since the submissions are open we are still receiving the reviews.

Spill the Ink was the 3rd event of the English Literary Circle. The submissions for the event were open from the 23rd of November to the 8th of December. This event required the participants to write an essay or poem. The event received over 30 amazing and motivating write-ups. The winners for Spill the Ink are as follows:

1st Prize: Harsh Mahajan: Food tales

2nd Prize: Jahanvi Joshi: Why?

Inter-Collegiate fests:

Duet of Disputes by H.R. College was a national-level debate and public speaking event was on 6th March 2021. Manya KT and Daniya Mhatre of FYBCom D of our college participated in this fest.

Students of our college also participated in the inter-college elocution event by Shree Narayana Guru College which was on 8th March 2021.