English Literary Circle

Teacher In-Charge: Mrs. Vrushali Bhosale-Kaneri
Student Secretary: Mr. Dhananjay Thakur

1. Inaugural Ceremony

The inaugural ceremony of the English Literary Circle took place on 30th July 2022. ELC laid down its plan for the year and encouraged students to participate in large numbers. Dr (Mrs) Shobana Vasudevan, our respected Principal, unveiled the new logo of the English Literary Circle. The event introduced everyone to ELC's past work and plans. It was attended by the Principal, the Vice-Principal (Degree college) and students in plenty.

2. Word Sleuth

The English Literacy Circle conducted its first event of the year, Word sleuth on 18th September 2022. It helps students to expand and build their vocabulary by engaging them in word-finding games and crosswords which are fun and educative at the same time. students won't only show their skills but also learn from their peers and make it a nice learning experience for all. The event was conducted online on the Google Meet platform. To keep the competition fair, two separate competitions were conducted for junior and degree colleges. The top three winners from each were declared and awarded e-certificates.

3. Buddy Programme

To help improve the command of English and inculcate a sense of understanding amongst all the students, the Buddy Programme initiative was taken! Through this Programme, we encourage students to step forward and help their friends and act as mentors in improving their English. It's the rapport that friends have that will pave the way for them to improve themselves. Through interesting, practical and challenging activities the beneficiaries along with their buddies are encouraged to improve their command of English!

4. Quote Unquote- an Intercollegiate Open Mic

English Literary Circle conducted its first offline event, "Quote Unquote," an intercollegiate Open Mic event, in association with the Planning Forum and Economics Association on January 6th 2023.

The event was an opportunity for every budding singer, storyteller and poet. The event saw the participation of students from various colleges across Mumbai. The participants showcased their talent through songs, poems, story narrations, rap, Shayari etc. To include every student's interest, there was a minimal language barrier. The participants had to ask to perform in line with the theme "Pandora's Box"; which they did effortlessly. All the participants were appreciated by awarding certificates and some exciting goodies!

5. Lacuna- ELC's Own Journal

Lacuna is the journal of the English Literary Circle that presents an opportunity to every budding writer out there. Every issue of the journal is based on a unique theme. All the literary pieces are to be in line with the theme for the month. This year Lacuna was published bi-monthly and it saw participation from some choicest writers. ELC has decided to publish Lacuna in a way that it becomes a beautiful mosaic of rare ideas and unique thoughts. This is why we wish to give all the students a chance to publish a piece in the journal!

6. Cut, Copy, Paste

The ELC plans to conduct one of its kind meme-making events in February. It's a unique event where students get the opportunity to get creative and make funny memes with the given templates.

7. Seminar

The ELC conducts seminars to develop a third-person perspective and give insight into topics relevant to college students. The ELC plans to conduct one this year too.
