1. Scholarship Guidance Session 2022-23

Date: 19.12.2022

Podar: Nurturing Intellect, Creating Personalities

Attendees: F.Y.B.COM, S.Y.B.COM, T.Y.B.COM, F.Y.BMS, S.Y.BMS & T.Y.BMS

Subject: The purpose of this session was to provide guidance to students on the process of applying for scholarships and to assist them in finding suitable opportunities.

On December 19, 2022, a scholarship guidance session was held at R.A. Podar College of Commerce & Economics (autonomous) in the F2 Classroom for undergraduate students.

The session was led by Mr. Chandrakant Kamble and Miss Nikita Tanksali, both of whom are experienced in the scholarship application process. They aimed to provide information and guidance on how to apply for scholarships and maximize the chances of success.

The session began with an overview of the different types of scholarships available, including need-based, merit-based, and subject-specific scholarships. The speaker stressed the importance of starting the scholarship search process early and advised students to utilize resources such as the college library computers and online scholarship databases to complete the procedure. The presenter, Miss Nikita Tanksali, gave a demonstration on how to use online resources, such as scholarship databases and search engines, to find scholarship opportunities. She also provided step-by-step guidance to students for filling out the online application form.

Summary of Activities:

- The session officially began with an address by our Principal Dr. (Mrs.) Shobana Vasudevan. She highlighted the need and importance of applying for the scholarship and how vital the scholarship application process is. She further emphasised and applauded the Equal Opportunity Center for conducting such a guidance session for the students. The Vice- Principal Ms Kavita Jajoo also encouraged students to apply early for the scholarship process and motivated them to come up with their queries and grievances.
- The session began with an introduction by Miss Nikita Tanksali, to the various types of scholarships available, including merit-based, need-based, and subject-specific awards.
- Students were then given an overview of the scholarship application process, including tips on how to gather the necessary documentation.
- Students were encouraged to start the scholarship process early.
- The session ended with a question-and-answer session, during which students had the opportunity to ask individual questions and seek further guidance.

- Overall, the scholarship guidance session was well-received by all the students and provided valuable information and resources for finding and applying for scholarship opportunities.

In conclusion, the scholarship guidance session was a success, providing students with valuable information and guidance on how to find and apply for scholarships. The presenters were knowledgeable and approachable, and the Q&A session allowed students to get answers to their specific questions. We hope to hold similar sessions in the future to continue to support students in their scholarship endeavors.
