

HOBBY CIRCLE

Teacher In-Charge: Mr. Akshay Shingare
Student Secretary: Ms. Madhura Satoskar

The Hobby Circle is an autonomous forum of the R.A. Podar College of Commerce and Economics that aims to provide a platform for Podarites' hobbies and, as its tagline says, "unleash the hidden knack" throughout the year, focusing on bringing out Podarites' hidden talents!

1. Book Binding

This event was conducted for the FYBCOM students as a part of their internals. The books hence made by them were donated to underprivileged students through an NGO.

2. Canva Workshop

The very first event of the forum for the year and that too offline, this event focused on imparting the students with knowledge regarding the basics of Canva and upping their skills. The event focused on helping the participants to be able to work on the app better as well as present all their documents and presentations in an enhanced manner.

3. Reel Making Competition

The students have grown over social media these past 2 years. Keeping that in mind, the forum organised this event to allow the students to unleash their hidden inner content creator through this reel making competition. This event saw a very positive participation.

4. Book Your Mark

This was a bookmark making event conducted to allow students to put their thinking caps on and bring out the creative sides they all possess. This event was a wonderful platform for quirky designs and creativity
