Report of National Cadet Corps 2020-21

Maj. MadhavB.Gavande

The NCC started the year with 52 cadets. The first event organized by NCC was the Independence Day parade on 15th August. Dr. (Mrs.) ShobanaVasudevan (Principal) and Major. M. B. Gavande hoisted the National flag. The principal inspected the squad and gave the squad the NCC oath. The parade commander was SUO. Vaibhav Joshi.

The NCC cadets also played an important role in celebrating "Republic Day" on 26th January, 2020. 25 cadets attended the celebration and successfully completed Rifle March.

From this year onwards our college has started to enrol female students (SW) in our NCC Unit.

Special Achievement for the year.

SUO. Pravesh Yadav :-

Mr. PraveshYadav would like to thank our Principal, Dr. ShobanaVasudevan, ANO, Maj. MadhavGavandeand entire college staff.

He got recommended for army as an officer and the journey till there was really awesome and progressive. He joined NCC in our college and gave it his all, being a sportsman he was always into tough training which made him psychologically strong and physically fit.

He developed his officer like qualities and was ready for the 5 days interview (SSB). He was never afraid of participating and taking initiative in activities. These 5 days were most important days of his life and knowing it he performed confidently, smiling through out his SSB and out of almost 8000 only 45 candidates get chance to join the OFFICERS TRAINING ACADEMY (Chennai). His batch had 174 candidates from all over India and 34 got screened in and 6 got recommend and proud to say he was the youngest one in all recommended candidates. SSB is the toughest interview which takes 5 days to judge a candidate and his personality. So, BEST OF LUCK CHAMP and ask yourself everyday "DO YOU HAVE IT IN YOU" and keep on improving and LIVE A LIFE LESS ORDINARY by joining the Indian Army.

JAI HIND.
